

French Conference: Dialogue Between Courts at the International Level

A conference will be held in Paris on March 19 on the Dialogue Between Courts at the International Level. The speakers will be Guy Canivet, the former chair of the French supreme court in civil, commercial and criminal matters (Cour de cassation), who was appointed last week to the Constitutional Council (Conseil constitutionnel), and professor Horatia Muir Watt from Paris I Panthéon Sorbonne university. The speakers should be speaking in French.

The conference will take place at 7 pm in the Centre Pompidou. It is free of charge.