

Reminder: Registration deadline for young scholars' PIL conference in Bonn

The following reminder has been kindly provided by Dr. Susanne L. Gössl. LL.M. (Tulane), University of Bonn.

This is a short reminder that the registration deadline for the first German young scholars' PIL conference on April 6th and 7th 2017 at the University of Bonn (see our previous post here) is approaching.

The conference will be held in German. Its general topic is "Politics and Private International Law".

Professor Dagmar Coester-Waltjen has kindly agreed to deliver our conference's opening address. Consolidated in four panels with the topics "Arbitration", "Procedural Law and Conflict of Laws/Substantial Law", "Protection of Individual Rights and Conflict of Laws" and "Public Law and Conflict of Laws", a total of eight presentations and one responsio will address current aspects of the relationship between politics and PIL and invite further discussion.

Participation is free, but a registration is required.

The registration deadline is February 28th 2017.

In order to register for the conference, please use this link. Please be aware that the number of participants is limited.

Further information may be found here.

We are looking forward to welcoming many participants to a lively and thought-provoking conference!
