

St. Petersburg International Legal Forum Private Law Prize 2020

Entries for the St. Petersburg International Legal Forum Private Law Prize 2020 will close on 15 October 2019. The first prize of 10 million rubles will be awarded to the author of the best academic work (monograph or article) published in the field of private law, private international law or comparative law since 1 January 2015. Textbooks and commentaries are not eligible for the prize. The prize expert committee consists of world renowned academics.

The prize will be awarded at the X St. Petersburg International Legal Forum in May 2020.

Further details on the conditions, eligibility and the prize expert committee may be accessed here.