

Table of Contents

Summary	5
Préface	9
Lukas Heckendorn Urscheler
Foreword	11
Janine Berg
Abbreviations	13
Introduction
Improving Social Cohesion through Connecting Factors in the Conflict of Laws of the Platform Economy	17
Ilaria Pretelli
1. The Economic Rise of Digital Platforms' Business Models and its Impact in the Conflict of Laws	18
1.1. Digital Platforms and the Tech Oligopoly	19
1.2. Existing Business Models: Advertising, Matching and Crowdfunding Platforms and Social Networks	21
2. Existing Legal Vacua	22
2.1. States, Borders and the Digital Market Place	23
2.2. Uncertainties as to the Legal Situation of Platforms	25
3. Digital Versions of Traditional Connecting Factors	27
3.1. The Location of Platforms' Servers as a Basis for Jurisdiction	28
3.2. Relevance of the Platform User's Place of Residence	29
4. Governing Relations between the Platform and its Users	31
4.1. Consumers and Workers in the European Legal Framework	31
4.2. Party Autonomy v Overriding Mandatory Rules	34
5. Governing Relations among Platforms' Users	38
5.1. P2P Relations	38
5.2. B2C Relations and the locus lucri	39
6. Rethinking Connecting Factors for Platform Governance	41
6.1. Social Cohesion and Law Enforcement in the Digital Space	42
6.2. A Call for ILO Standards in Private International Law	46

Part I

The Legal Essence of Digital Platforms

Rules for a Platform Economy: A Case for Harmonisation to Counter “Platform Shopping” in the Digital Economy..... 55
Teresa Rodríguez de las Heras Ballell

1. The New Architecture of the Digital Economy: Electronic Platforms 55
2. In the Absence of a Law of Platforms 58
3. Conceptualising Platform Models: A Legal Concept of Platform and Possible Scope for a Law of Platforms 63
 - 3.1. A Proposal for a Legal Concept of Platform 63
 - 3.2. Scope-Delimiting Regulatory Options for a Law of Platforms 69
4. Rules for a Platform Economy: A Case for Harmonisation..... 71
 - 4.1. Key Issues to Consider for a Platform-Oriented Legislative Action 72
 - 4.2. The Risk of “Platform Shopping” and the Merits of a Harmonised Law of Platforms..... 76

Electronic Platforms: A Rough Overview of New Regulatory Challenges 81
Gerald Spindler

1. Introduction 81
2. Fundamental Problems..... 82
3. Related Legal Regulatory Challenges..... 83
 - 3.1. Unfair Commercial Practices..... 86
 - 3.2. Unfair Standard Terms and Contracts on Digital Content 88
 - 3.3. Antitrust..... 90
 - 3.4. Labour Law 92
 - 3.5. Data Protection 94
 - 3.6. Contributory Liability for Copyright?..... 95
4. Regulated Industries 97
5. Platforms as Mass Communication media 99
6. Responsibility and Liability 101
7. Conclusion..... 103

Further Input

Sharing Economy Platforms and Online Trading Communities: Definitions and Protection of Weak Contractual Parties..... 111
Federico Lubian

1. Online Platforms and the Sharing Economy..... 111
2. The Debate on the Definition of the Sharing Economy Definition and the Constitutive Elements of the Platforms’ Business Models..... 113
 - 2.1. Access to Underutilised Assets and the Remuneration: Relevance and Systemic Qualification 113

2.2. The Trade of Data: Involvement of Different Categories of Users and Qualification of Platforms’ Business Models..... 115

3. The Creation and Organisation of the Online Trading Communities by the Sharing Economy Platforms 117

3.1. The Activities of the Sharing Economy Platforms and their Prerogatives on the Online Trading Communities..... 117

3.2. The European Court of Justice Case Law: The Decisive Influence of the Platforms on the Final Conditions of the Assets Provision..... 120

4. The Balance between the Prerogatives and the Application of Weak Parties’ Protection Provisions..... 122

Part II

Conflict of Laws in the Digital Age

Private Ordering, the Platform Economy, and the Regulatory

Potential of Private International Law 129

Tobias Lutzi

1. Introduction 129

2. Private International Law and the Internet..... 130

2.1. From “Does State Law Apply?” to “Which State Law Applies?” 130

2.2. From Horizontal to Vertical Coordination 132

3. Private International Law and the Platform Economy..... 134

3.1. Treating the Platform as a Legal System..... 134

3.2. Taking the Platform Contract into Account..... 136

4. Conclusion..... 143

Promoting Fairness and Transparency for Business Users of Online

Platforms: The Role of Private International Law 147

Pietro Franzina

1. The Commission’s Proposal of 2018..... 147

2. The Absence in the Proposal of any Private International Law Rule 148

3. The Relationship of the Proposed Regulation with the Rome I and II Regulations 150

4. The Missing Link: Jurisdiction 152

5. Grounds on which a Platform Operator May Be Sued in the Union 154

6. Cases where the Jurisdiction of Union’s Courts May Be Excluded by Agreement..... 156

7. Providing Users with the Right to Access a Union’s Court: Possible Patterns 159

8. Concluding Remarks..... 161

Blockchain : le pont du droit international privé entre l'espace numérique et l'espace physique 163
Florence Guillaume

1. Introduction 164

2. La technologie blockchain en quelques mots 166

2.1. Une base de données décentralisée 166

2.2. Un enregistrement des données permanent 167

2.3. Un réseau numérique pair-à-pair 167

2.4. Une crypto-monnaie 167

2.5. L'anonymat des utilisateurs 169

2.6. Les modèles de gouvernance de la blockchain 170

3. La blockchain est-elle une plateforme numérique ? 170

4. La portée juridique des transactions effectuées sur la blockchain 171

4.1. L'absence de règles de droit privé spécifiques 172

4.2. L'exemple des smart contracts 172

5. La création d'un pont entre l'espace numérique et l'espace physique au moyen des règles de droit international privé 174

5.1. La portée internationale des transactions effectuées sur la blockchain 174

5.2. L'appréhension des transactions effectuées sur la blockchain par les règles de droit international privé 175

5.3. La compétence pour juger des actions relatives aux transactions effectuées sur la blockchain 176

5.4. Le droit applicable aux transactions effectuées sur la blockchain 178

5.5. La localisation des transactions effectuées sur la blockchain : un constat d'échec 181

6. La création d'un système de droit anational 182

6.1. L'avènement d'une lex cryptographia 182

6.2. Le contrôle du respect des règles de droit au moyen d'un système de résolution des conflits en ligne 185

7. Conclusion 187

Further Input

Streaming Platforms and Copyright in Conflict of Laws 193
Florian Heindler

1. Introduction 193

2. Cross-Border Situations 194

3. Recent Initiatives by the EU Legislator 197

3.1. Proposal COM(2016) 594 197

3.2. Regulation 2017/1128/EU 199

3.3. Regulation of Online Platforms 200

4. Summary 201

Sharing Economy Platforms: Does Party Autonomy Really Matter?..... 203
Edoardo Alberto Rossi

1. Introduction 203
 2. Intermediaries in the Sharing Economy 205
 3. “Professionals” and “Non-Professionals” in the Sharing Economy 206
 4. Concluding Notes 207

Part III

Digital Labour Platforms' Governance

A Labour Law Perspective on Conflict of Laws

Reflecting on the Roundtable: Online Worker’s Rights and Conflicts of Law 213

Miriam A. Cherry & Valerio De Stefano

1. Introduction 213
 2. The Global Reach of Crowdwork 214
 3. Emerging Conflicts of Law in the Gig Economy 215
 3.1. Worker Classification in the U.S..... 216
 3.2. Worker Classification in the E.U. 216
 4. Analysis under US and EU Law..... 218
 5. Potential Solutions 221
 6. Conclusion..... 222

Tournant numérique et territoire juridique du rapport de travail..... 225

Aurélien Witzig

Introduction..... 225
 1. Déterritorialisation intrinsèque du rapport de travail..... 227
 1.1. La limite du territoire de l’entreprise..... 227
 1.2. La limite du domaine du droit du travail..... 228
 2. Déterritorialisation extrinsèque du rapport de travail..... 230
 2.1. Le droit applicable au travail déterritorialisé 231
 2.2. Le juge du travail déterritorialisé..... 235
 Conclusion..... 238

Government Regulation of Digital Labour Platforms

Faut-il prévoir des règles impératives pour la protection des parties faibles dans les relations de travail? Quelques suggestions méthodologiques pour une réponse éclairée 243

Edmondo Mostacci

1. Introduction 243

2.	La méthode d'analyse entre le constitutionnalisme démocratique et le droit de l'économie.....	244
3.	Le travail dans le cadre des systèmes de protection sociale	246
4.	L'état providence actif face à l'économie numérique.....	248
5.	Le droit national et le droit international: à chacun son rôle.....	250

Faut-il prévoir des règles impératives pour la protection des parties faibles dans les relations de travail? Réponse française à un phénomène

transnational.....	255
---------------------------	------------

Marie-Cécile Escande-Varniol

1.	Un phénomène transnational qui appelle des solutions nationales	256
1.1.	Une relation de travail d'un genre nouveau	257
1.2.	Des solutions inadaptées.....	261
2.	Réaction du droit du travail français	266
2.1.	Une nouvelle catégorie de travailleur indépendant	267
2.2.	Ébauche d'un statut social	271

Impact on Social Rights and Mobility Rights of Workers

The Need to Rethink the Subordination Criterion in the Context of Collaborative Work.....	283
--	------------

Ljupcho Grozdanovski

1.	Introduction	283
2.	Scope of the Study and Preliminary Remarks.....	285
2.1.	Underlying Services.....	285
2.2.	Treaty Provisions.....	286
2.3.	Operative concepts.....	286
3.	The EU Notion of Worker prima facie Inclusive of New Types of Work	288
3.1.	The Contractualist vs the Essentialist Approach in Defining Employment... ..	288
3.2.	Qualifying Platform Workers in the Context of Labour Mobility.....	290
3.3.	Qualifying Platform Workers for the Purpose of Benefitting from Workers' Rights.....	292
4.	Applying the Essential Features of Employment to Platform Work.....	294
4.1.	Platform Work Displaying the Substantive Features of Employment	294
4.2.	Difficulties Related to the Structural Features of Employment.....	297
5.	A Shift in the Definition of the Subordination Criterion	298
5.1.	The Gradual Abandonment of the Master-Servant Paradigm.....	298
5.2.	A Shift toward the Power to Control Key Aspects of Work Performance.....	300
5.3.	The Economic Assessment of the Employer's Powers	301
6.	Conclusion.....	303

Le futur dialogue social et du tripartisme dans le contexte de la digitalisation de l'économie	305
Anne Meier
1. Introduction: contexte de la présente contribution	305
2. A la recherche d'une définition de l'économie du partage	307
2.1. Aspects d'ordre structurel.....	307
2.2. Adaptation du tissu conventionnel et tripartite à la digitalisation de l'économie: éléments structurels et généraux.....	308
3. Conditions de travail: champ d'action des partenaires sociaux.....	310
3.1. Santé et sécurité au travail	310
3.2. Participation des travailleurs.....	311
3.3. Temps de travail.....	311
3.4. Lieu de travail.....	312
3.5. Formation et formation continue.....	313
3.6. Protection des données et surveillance.....	313
3.7. Contrôle des conditions de travail.....	314
Further Input
New Paths of Protection in the Digital Labyrinth.....	325
Elena Signorini
1. Digitalisation as a Multifaceted Phenomenon	325
2. The Platform as Custodian and Guarantor of Workers' Rights.....	328
2.1. A Multi-Party Organisational Model	328
2.2. The Similarities between Crowdfunding and Crowdfunding	329
3. How to Get Out of the Labyrinth.....	331
Table of Contents	335