German Publication: Private International Law and International Procedural Law

The 13th edition of the German collection of rules on private international law and international procedural law – "Internationales Privat- und Verfahrensrecht" – edited by Erik Jayme and Rainer Hausmann has been published. It contains the German conflict of law rules (EGBGB) as well as bi-and multilateral conventions and European rules on all areas of private international law and international procedural law.

More information can be found on the publisher´s website.