

Workshop: Conflict of Laws and Laws of Conflict in Europe and Beyond - Patterns of Supranational and Transnational Juridification

The one-day workshop titled “Conflict of Laws and Laws of Conflict in Europe and Beyond - Patterns of Supranational and Transnational Juridification” is hosted by the Law Department of the European University Institute and organized by Dr. Rainer Nickel of the University of Frankfurt am Main. It receives support under the FP 6, and makes part of the RECON project which seeks to clarify whether democracy is possible under conditions of pluralism, diversity and complex multilevel governance.

Although, in a view of the topics, this workshop is not a typical conflict of laws event, it might be of interest for the users of this blog too. The workshop website is accessible here and the program containing the list of speakers and topics as well as members of the discussion panel and some other participants is available here.

The workshop is scheduled for 21 September 2007 and will take place in a beautiful venue in of the Florence European University Institute, Conference Room, Villa La Fonte, San Domenico di Fiesole. The registration is possible with Marlies Becker (marlies.becker@eui.eu).
