

Conference: Arbitration and EC Law

The Heidelberg Centre for International Dispute Resolution at the Institute for Private International and Comparative Law will host a conference with the topic “Arbitration and EC Law - Current Issues and Trends”.

 The conference will focus on the relations between European civil procedure and arbitration which have been an intensely debated topic among legal scholars and practitioners for a long time. Lately the debate has been fuelled in particular by:

- the upcoming decision of the European Court of Justice which will decide on the availability of anti-suit injunctions for the protection of arbitral agreements (case C-185/07) – on September 4, 2008 GA Kokott proposed in her conclusions not to permit such remedies in the European Judicial Area,
- recent case law in several EC Member States addressing the arbitrability of EC antitrust law,
- the publication of a report, commonly known as the Heidelberg Report, analyzing – in view of the European Commission’s upcoming proposals on possible improvements of the Brussels I Regulation in 2009 – the application of the Regulation in 25 Member States, which proposes to delete the arbitration exception in article 1 no. 2d in order to bring ancillary proceedings relating to arbitration under the scope of the Brussels I Regulation

The conference will take place from 5th to 6th December 2008 in Heidelberg. Here is the conference program:
