

Conference: International Society of Family Law

From 16th to 20th September 2008, the 13th World Conference of the International Society of Family Law will take place in Vienna. The topic of the conference is “Family Finances”.

A preliminary programme as well as further information on the venue, registration etc. can be found on the website of the University of Vienna.

(Many thanks to Thomas Thiede (Vienna) for the tip-off.)