

BIICL Fellowship in Private International Law

The British Institute of International and Comparative Law is seeking to  appoint a Senior Research Fellow in International Private Law.

The advertisement can be found here and a full job description can be found here. The post is a research post, with no teaching duties. The fellow will be appointed for five years and be expected to lead the Institute research and events programme in international private law.

The closing date for applications was March 16. This looks like a (bad) joke, but if you are interested, it might be that your application could still be considered.
