Third Preliminary Draft of the CLIP Principles

The European Max-Planck Group for Conflict of Laws in Intellectual Property has recently published the Third Drat of their Principles for Conflict of Laws in Intellectual Property, which is available for download here. This version contains amended and supplemented rules contained in the First Draft of April 2009 (reported here), and the Second Draft of June 2009. The initial rules were exposed to the scrutiny of the scholars and practitioners outside the Group and the Third Draft is partially the result thereof.

Compared to the Second Draft, the Third Draft introduces changes, some just redrafts and some more substantial modifications, with respect to following issues:

Scope
General jurisdiction
Jurisdiction for infringements
Jurisdiction for multiple defendants
Jurisdiction for declaratory actions
Jurisdiction for preliminary and protective measures
General provisions on jurisdiction
Scope of injunction
Cooperation in multistate proceedings
Congruent and preliminary proceedings

Law applicable to security interests in IP Law applicable to ubiquitous infringements General rule on recognition and enforcement

Law applicable in the absence of choice

It is interesting to note that the Group is having profound doubts as to the choice of the choice-of-law rules for security interests in IPRs, and three versions are currently being considered.

The CLIP website still contains the invitation for all to make suggestions or advance critical remarks to the members of the Group. However, any such comments wishing to have an effect on the text of the Principles would probably be appreciated sooner rather than later since the Group has announced the plan to publish the final version of the Principles together with comments in 2011.
