EUPILLAR Project Workshop on “Cross-Border Litigation in Europe: European and British Perspectives on the Private International Law Legislative Framework, Juridical Experience and Practice” (Aberdeen, 17 April 2015)

The Centre for Private International Law at the Law School of the University of Aberdeen is pleased to announce that the kick-off workshop of the EUPILLAR (European Union Private International Law: Legal Application in Reality) Project, funded by the European Commission, will take place at the University of Aberdeen, King’s College Conference Centre on 17 April 2015 between 9am and 5.50pm.

Pre-registration is required via email to b.yuksel@abdn.ac.uk. Please include your name and affiliation. Attendance is free of charge for the first 20 people to register for the event. For subsequent registrations, the Centre for Private International Law reserves the right to charge a small fee for catering costs and will notify those requesting to attend how much this will be if it is required.

The programme is found here.
