Brexit and Family Law Conference in Cambridge on 27 March 2017

The UK's withdrawal from the EU will precipitate important change in international family law. EU law has increasingly come to define key aspects of both jurisdiction and recognition & enforcement of judgments on divorce, maintenance, and disputes over children, including international child abduction, and provided new frameworks for cross-national cooperation.

Child & Family Law Quarterly and Cambridge Family Law will, therefore, host a joint seminar on 27 March 2017. International experts and practitioners will discuss the impacts of 'Brexit' on family law, from a range of national and European perspectives, and reflect on the future of international family law practice in the UK.
