

60° SEMINARIO DI DIRITTO COMPARATO ED EUROPEO

The 60th Seminar of Comparative and European Law in Urbino (Italy) has already been announced. It will take place from August 20, to September 1. The program includes presentations on many different topics, some of them of direct interest for private international lawyers and scholars. The whole program is available here, together with information on enrollment, accommodation, and how to get to Urbino.