

Programme now available: Inaugural global conference on the Judgments Convention

The Permanent Bureau of the HCCH has just announced that the programme for the first global conference on the newly adopted HCCH Judgments Convention is now available via: <<http://www.hcchjudgmentshk.org/programme.php>> with registrations are now also open.

As previously posted, the conference will take place on 9 September 2019 in Hong Kong SAR, People's Republic of China. It is open to interested experts with participation free of charge. However, advance registration is required as the number of participants is limited. Registrations are handled on a first come, first served basis.

The deadline for registration is Saturday 31 August 2019.

Additional information relating to the Conference (incl. venue, accommodation, transportation, visa requirements, and other practical information) is also now available on the Conference website. Interested experts may consult this site regularly for more updates as they become available.
