

Two post-doc positions at the University of Maastricht

Kindly shared by Marta Pertegás Sender, Professor at the University of Maastricht

The University of Maastricht Law Faculty is offering two post-doc positions in the area of private law (including private international law), with focus on digital legal studies and globalisation respectively. The job descriptions and requirements are available hereunder:

- Assistant Professor Digital Legal Studies
- Assistant Professor Private Law and Globalization