On Friday, November 13, at 11:00 Brasilia time (i.e. 15:00 in Hamburg and 9:00 a.m. in New York) this book will be launched via zoom. The book emerges from a 2019 conference in Brasilia, which brought together scholars from several countries, and in several languages (Portuguese, Spanish, English). It demonstrates the vibrancy of private international law in Latin America.
