

“Coordinating Brussels Ia with other Instruments of EU Law”: An Online Roundtable, 24 September 2020

An online roundtable addressing the coordination between the Brussels Ia Regulation and other instruments of EU law will take place next 24 September, 3 p.m., on Teams channel.

The event is part of the EU co-financed “EN2BRiA” Project and scheduled within the PEPP Programme (Programme in European Private Law for Postgraduates). EN2BRiA mainly aims to shed light on how the relationship between the Brussels Ia Regulation and other EU law instruments is to be handled. The upcoming roundtable will showcase and discuss the preliminary results of the investigation conducted by the Partners of the Project, namely the Universities of Genoa, Nice, Valencia, and Tirana. Chaired by Chiara E. Tuo (Univ. Genoa), the roundtable features as speakers Jean-Sylvestre Bergé (Univ. Nice), Guillermo Palao Moreno (Univ. Valencia), Giulio Cesare Giorgini (Univ. Nice), Rosario Espinosa Calabuig (Univ. Valencia), Rosa Lapiedra Alcamí (Univ. Valencia), Isabel Reig Fabado (Univ. Valencia), and Stefano Dominelli (Univ. Genoa).

Participation is free; more info, specially about the access to the Teams channel, may be found here.
