

Hague Academy of International Law: Deadline to apply for the 2021 Centre for Studies and Research (postponement of the 2020 edition) until September 1st, 2020

The Hague Academy of International Law announces the extension of the deadline to apply for the 2021 Centre for Studies and Research (postponement of the 2020 edition) until September 1st, 2020 (GMT+1). The programme will take place between August 16th and September 3rd, 2021 and will focus on the topic of “Applicable Law Issues in International Arbitration”.

The Directors of Research, Prof. Giuditta Cordero-Moss (University of Oslo) and Prof. Diego Fernández Arroyo (Sciences Po, Paris), invite applications from researchers including students in the final phase of their doctoral studies, holders of advanced degrees in law, political science, or other related disciplines, early-stage professors and legal practitioners. Applicants should identify the specific topic on which they intend to write. Participants will be selected during the fall of 2020, and will convene at The Hague during the programme period to finalize their papers. The best articles will be included in a book to be published in the fall of 2022.

All applicants are required to register online via the appropriate registration form. For more information about the programmes of The Hague Academy of International Law, please consult the website: <https://www.hagueacademy.nl/>.

Given the extremely positive feed-back of so many participants of earlier events of this type, participation is highly recommended to the global PIL community.
