

Second Yearbook of the Master's Program at the Central University of Venezuela

Amazingly, despite the severe crisis in Venezuela, the Master's Program in Private International Law and Comparative Private Law at the Universidad Central de Venezuela has managed to publish its second Yearbook, with two theses and several impressive shorter pieces by students as well as two new pieces and two "classics" by professors. (Report on the first yearbook last year is here.)