

Virtual Workshop on November 3 (TOMORROW): Susanne Gössl on Identity in European Private International Law

On Tuesday, November 3, the Hamburg Max Planck Institute will host its fifth monthly virtual workshop in private international law at 11:00-12:30. Susanne Gössl (Christian Albrecht University Kiel) will speak, in German, about the topic

„Wer oder was bin ich überhaupt? - Zur Zukunft des Personalstatuts unter europäischen Einflüssen

(“Who or What am I Anyway? The Future of the Law Applicable to Natural Persons under European Influence”)

The presentation will be followed by open discussion. All are welcome. More information and sign-up here.

This is the fifth such lecture in the series, after those by Mathias Lehmann in June, Eva-Maria Kieninger in July, Giesela Rühl in September, and Anatol Dutta in October. The designated December speaker is Marc-Philippe Weller (Heidelberg). Starting in January 2021, we plan to alternate between German and English, in order to enable more interested scholars to participate.

If you want to be invited to these events in the future, please write to veranstaltungen@mpipriv.de