

Webinars on Private International Law and Covid-19: 11-22 May 2020

Gathering (or rather e-gathering) professors and researchers from Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, Mexico, Spain, and Portugal, a series of webinars is taking place from today until 22 May, under the general topic of PIL and Covid-19: Mobility, Commerce and Challenges in the Global Order.

Subtopics are:

I – PIL, International Institutions and Global Governance in times of Covid-19

II – Protecting persons in mobility and Covid-19: Human Rights, Families, Migrants, and Consumers

III – International Commerce and Covid-19: Global Supply Chains, Civil Aviation, Technologies & Labor

Full programme and more information: here.