

OAS Virtual Forum on the Inter-American Juridical Committee's Report on International Law and State Cyber Operations (on 8 March at 11 am DC time, 5 pm CET)

THE SECRETARIAT FOR LEGAL AFFAIRS EXTENDS AN INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE THIRD SESSION OF THE VIRTUAL FORUM “THE WORK OF THE INTER-AMERICAN JURIDICAL COMMITTEE”

OAS | More rights
for more people

“PRESENTATION OF THE INTER-AMERICAN JURIDICAL COMMITTEE’S REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL LAW AND STATE CYBER OPERATIONS: IMPROVING TRANSPARENCY”

This session will address the report adopted by the Inter-American Juridical Committee on August 2020 which provides parameters on the application of international law to cyberspace and outlines points of convergence and divergence in terms of how those international rules are understood in OAS member states, including their response to cyber threats.

PANELISTS:

Presentation of the CJI’s Report

Duncan Hollis -
*Professor of Law,
Temple University Law School. Former rapporteur on “cyber-security”*

MODERATOR:

Dante Negro -
Director, Department of International Law, Secretariat for Legal Affairs, OAS

Comments and thoughts

Mariana Salazar -
*Rapporteur on “cyber-security”.
Member, Inter-American
Juridical Committee*

Q&A SESSION WILL FOLLOW

THE PRESENTATIONS

Monday, March 8th, 11:00 a. m.,
Washington D.C. local time.

The agenda, details for registration and connection instructions can be consulted at http://www.oas.org/en/sla/virtual_forum.asp

For any comments or questions:
Dr. Luis Toro (LToro@oas.org)

Please note that this session will be held in English with no simultaneous interpretation provided.

The Organization of American States (OAS) is organizing a virtual forum as noted in the poster above. For more information, click here.

This virtual forum will address the report: Improving transparency: international law and State cyber operations - fifth report drawn up by Professor Duncan B.

Hollis. This report is available here and has been translated into the four official languages of the OAS: Spanish, English, French and Portuguese.

While this report touches upon international law in general, it may still be of interest to some of our readers.