

Cross-Border Families under Covid-19 - International Virtual Workshop on 22 June 22 13:00-18:30 (CET)

The Minerva Centre for Human Rights at Tel Aviv University is organising an international socio-legal workshop that will explore the impact of the Covid-19 crisis and its regulation on cross-border families. Topics include issues of belonging, travel restrictions, civil rights, birth across borders, international child abduction and transnational homes in pandemic times.

The workshop will take place on 22 June 2021. The full program and registration form are available.

For additional information, contact eynatmey@tauex.tau.ac.il