Virtual Workshop on May 4: Marta Pertegás Sender on connections and disconnections between local, regional and global norms

On Tuesday, May 4, 2021, the Hamburg Max Planck Institute will host its tenth monthly virtual workshop in private international law at 11:00-12:30. Since January of this year, we are alternating between English and German language. Marta Pertegás Sender (Maastricht University) will speak, in English, about the topic

Between Global and Regional Private International Law – Seamless Transitions From Regulations to Conventions?

The presentation will be followed by open discussion. All are welcome. More information and sign-up here

This is the ninth such lecture in the series, after those by Mathias Lehmann in June, Eva-Maria Kieninger in July, Giesela Rühl in September, Anatol Dutta in October, Susanne Gössl in November, Marc-Philippe Weller in December, Macjiej Szpunar in January, Dagmar Coester-Waltjen in February, Horatia Muir Watt in March, and Burkhard Hess in April. On June 1 we will host Tania Domej (Zurich University), on July 6 Hannah Buxbaum (Indiana University). Stay tuned!

If you want to be invited to these events in the future, please write to veranstaltungen@mpipriv.de