

Webinar: Contextualising Insurance Contracts: Interactions with Various Fields of Law (Day 4)- Insurance and Transport Risks

Contextualising Insurance Contracts:
Interactions with Various Fields of Law (Day 4)
Insurance and Transport Risks

19 FEBRUARY 2021
FRIDAY
16:00 - 18:00 (GMT+3)

MODERATOR
Dr. Agustín Recasens (York University, University of Exeter)

16:00 Opening Remarks
Dr. Agustín Recasens

16:10 Proposal for an Insurance Scheme for Losses arising from Rescue Operations
Dr. Simon Ojny (York University, York University, York University)

16:20 The Longitudinal Character of Marine Insurance Exclusion Clauses
Dr. Richard Kilguski (York University, York University, York University)

16:30 Increasing Cargo Theft Problems: an Analysis of Cargo Claims and Comments from the Perspective of Insurance Law with Loss Prevention Methods
Dr. Shahin Akbari (York University, York University, York University)

17:00 Advances in Aircraft Insurance in Turkish Legislation
Dr. Ali Çengiz (Yıldırım Beyazıt University, Yıldırım Beyazıt University)

17:30 Q&A

This webinar is organized by the European Programme of Interventional Research in Law (EPRI) as part of the Jean Monnet Module project "Reformulation of the Principles of Insurance Law in Europe" (EPRI/2018) led by the University of Exeter. More information: www.epri.eu

  With the support of the European Programme of the European Union  