Private International Law Festival Edinburgh 16-17 May

The University of Edinburgh, together with the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law, organizes a new event, a two day Private International Law Festival, scheduled for 16 & 17 May. Besides various thematic panels, the festival includes this year's Forum Conveniens Annual Lecture by Máire Ní Shúilleabháin (University College Dublin) and a book launch of Paul Beaumont and Jayne Halliday (eds), A Guide to Global Private International Law (Hart, 2022).

Register here.