

Research Seminar on Parental Child Abduction in International and Islamic Law

A research seminar on the topic “Hard Legal Problems and Comparative Legal Analysis: The case of parental child abduction in international and Islamic law” is organised by the Aberdeen Centre for Private International Law under the auspices of the Aberdeen Law School Research Seminar Series. The seminar will be delivered by Professor Anver Emon from the Faculty of Law of the University of Toronto, Canada, and will be held on Friday 11 March 2022, 5-6.30 p.m. (UK time), through MS Teams. For more information, click here.