Series of webinars in Argentina every Thursday in November 2022: A new agenda for a post-pandemic world?

A series of webinars will be held every Thursday in November 2022 at 5 pm (Argentina time, 9 pm CET time) in Spanish. The topics range from international family law to environmental justice to the consequences of the conflict in Ukraine for Private International Law.

Registration is free of charge. To register, click here.

The program is available below:

