

The Relationship between the Hague Choice of Court and the Hague Judgments Convention

Aygun Mammadzada (Swansea University) will be the main speaker at the upcoming MECSI Seminar, scheduled to take place on 22 November 2022, at the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart in Milan.

The title of the seminar is The Relationship between the Hague Choice of Court and the Hague Judgments Convention - A Major International Breakthrough?

Zeno Crespi Reghizzi (University of Milan) will serve as discussant.

Attendance is free, on site and on line (via MS Teams). Further information, including the link to join the seminar on line, are found here.

For queries, write an e-mail to pietro.franzina@unicatt.it.

[This post is cross-posted at the EAPIL blog.]