

The Ukraine War in Public and Private International Law - online panel

On 31 March 2022, 4-7pm CEST, the German Association of International organizes an online panel, in German, on question of public and private international law regarding the Russian invasion of Ukraine: The topics are as follows:

- Public international law questions of armed conflict (Paulina Starski)
- Public international law questions “off the battlefield” (Markus Krajewski)
- The enforcement of claims from Russian government bonds: potential scenarios (Peter Kindler)
- The status of Ukrainian refugees in private international law (Jan von Hein)

The event is only open to members of the Association and persons invited by them (normally PhD and other students). If you know a person who is member of the society you may ask him or her if he/she will forward the invitation to you.

More information here.