

“Third-Party Funding: Trends, Developments and the Future” - 7 December 2022, Erasmus School of Law (online)

In the context of the Vici project ‘Affordable Access to Justice’ conducted by the Erasmus School of Law (Rotterdam) and financed by the Dutch Research Council - NWO, the project team is organizing a seminar titled ‘Third-Party Funding: Trends, Developments, and the Future’ (online).

The seminar is scheduled for Wednesday, 7 December 2022 (10:00-12:15 CET) and it will feature presentations by: Xandra Kramer (Erasmus University Rotterdam/Utrecht University, Netherlands), Stefaan Voet (KU Leuven, Belgium), Masood Ahmed (University of Leicester, UK), Adrian Cordina (Erasmus University Rotterdam, Netherlands), Michael Legg (UNSW Sydney, Australia), David Capper (Queen’s University Belfast, UK).

The complete program and information for the online registration are available here.

For updated information on the project, you may follow the Project’s LinkedIn page.