

HCCH Internship Applications Now Open!

Applications are now open for three- to six-month legal internships at the Permanent Bureau's headquarters in The Hague, for the period from July to December 2023!

Interns work with our legal teams in the areas of Family and Child Protection Law, Transnational Litigation and Legal Cooperation, and Commercial, Digital and Financial Law. Duties may include carrying out research on particular points of private international law and/or comparative law, taking part in the preparation of HCCH meetings and contributing to the promotion of the HCCH and its work.

Applications should be submitted by 31 March 2023. For more information, please visit the Internships Section of the HCCH website.
