

Lecture by Prof. Dr. Horatia Muir Watt: “Ecological Jurisprudence: The Shape of Legality at its Own Last Frontier (a Private International Law Approach)” on 27 October 2023 at 17:00 (CEST) at Maastricht University

On 27 October 2023, the Department of Private Law of Maastricht University (the Netherlands) is hosting a lecture by Prof. Dr. Horatia Muir Watt, Professor at the Sciences Po Law School (Paris), entitled: “Ecological Jurisprudence: The Shape of Legality at its Own Last Frontier (a Private International Law Approach)” at 17:00 (CEST time). This event will take place onsite and in English. For more information, click here.

Registration is free of charge. The deadline to register is 19 October 2023.

A Research Seminar with PhD researchers and Prof. Dr. Horatia Muir Watt will take place that same day from 10.00 - 12.00.

Prof. Horatia Muir Watt has recently published a book entitled: The Law's Ultimate Frontier: Towards an Ecological Jurisprudence: A Global Horizon in Private International Law (Oxford: Hart, 2023). More information is available here.

The Law's Ultimate Frontier:
Towards an Ecological Jurisprudence

A Global Horizon in Private International Law

HORATIA MUIR WATT

HART MONOGRAPHS IN TRANSNATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL LAW