

Save the Date: EU Insolvency Law and Third Countries: Which Way(s) Forward?, 26-28 Oct 2023

On 26-28 October 2023, the University of Kiel will be hosting a conference on 'EU Insolvency Law and Third Countries: Which Way(s) Forward?'. It is part of a research project coordinated by Professors Alexander Trunk (University of Kiel) and Jasnica Garasic (University of Zagreb), which is endorsed by UNCITRAL and supported by the Fritz Thyssen Foundation. It is conducted in cooperation with representatives of the European Commission and the Hague Conference on Private International Law.

At the conference, the first results from the project will be presented and discussed with a larger professional and academic public. The conference will also include a Young Researchers Forum on the morning of 26 October.

The organizers have kindly shared the following documents with us:

- Conference Announcement (and Application Form)
- YRF Announcement (and Application Form)

Further information can also be found at the project website.