

Transatlantic Dialogue in Private International Law: family and personal status, 12-13 October, Coimbra

The Institute of Legal Research of the University of Coimbra is organising an event in their series of Transatlantic Dialogues in Private International law. On 12 and 13 October the topic is Family and Personal Status on the Move.

The programme includes the main developments in family law and personal status, name, multiple parenthood, gender and polyamorous relationships. Besides, there is a session for young researchers, for whom the organisers opened a call for papers. A 300-word abstract should be submitted by mail to dulcel@fd.uc.pt and paulavit@fd.uc.pt. by 20 September.

See the Call for papers booklet

The organisers are Dulce Lopez, Guillermo Palao Moreno, Nicolas Nord and Paula Távora Vítor.

The event is hybrid, but registration is required.