Conference on International Commercial Courts, State Model(s) of Specialised (Domestic) Courts? (Lyon/online, 8 Oct 24)

On 8 October 2024, Jeremy Heymann and Marylou Françoise (both Université jean Moulin Lyon 3) will be hosting a conference on 'International Commercial Courts, State Model(s) of Specialised (Domestic) Courts?' in Lyon. The conference constitutes the inaugural event of a series of conferences on 'International Disputes and Specialised Courts' and features practical and academic perspectives from numerous jurisdictions. It will be held both in Lyon and online.

The programme can be found here; the registration form can be found here.