Prof. Diego P. Fernández Arroyo is appointed president of the Curatorium of the Hague Academy of International Law

This month Prof. Diego P. Fernández Arroyo, a renowned expert in Private International Law, has been appointed president of the Curatorium of the Hague Academy of International Law. He succeeded Prof. Yves Daudet. For more information, click here and here.

Prof. Fernández Arroyo is the first Latin American to ever hold that position.

Below is an image circulated by ASADIP. Many congratulations!

Diego P. Fernández Arroyo
es elegido Presidente
del Curatorium
de la Academia
de Derecho Internacional
de La Haya
ASADIP
ASOCIACIÓN AMERICANA
DE DERECHO INTERNACIONAL PRIVADO