Call for Abstracts: International Conference on Modern Problems of Private International Law, Poznan – Riga

The following announcement was shared with us by the conference organizers, Aleksandrs Fillers (Riga Graduate School of Law, Latvia), Adrian Rycerski (SWPS University in Poznan, Poland).

Please save the date: 19 November 2026

We are pleased to invite you to an international scientific conference devoted to modern problems of Private International Law, with particular attention to the impact of new technologies.

We hope the event will provide an excellent opportunity for the exchange of views, experiences, and in-depth discussion.

The conference will be held online and will bring together students, PhD candidates, and experienced experts.

The organizers plan a post-conference publication.

We welcome abstracts addressing any aspect of Private International Law, especially those focusing on modern issues and emerging challenges.

Abstracts (in English, max. 1500 characters) should be submitted to: Aleksandrs.Fillers@rgsl.edu.lv and arycerski@swps.edu.pl

Submission deadline: 31 May 2026

Notification of acceptance: by 30 June 2026

Participation in the conference is free of charge.

We look forward to your contributions!

Aleksandrs Fillers, PhD
Associate Professor at Riga Graduate School of Law

Adrian Rycerski, PhD
