Keio University Law School Book Series Seminar: Hart's Studies in Private International Law – Asia (25 September 2026, 3–4PM)

Keio University Law School in Tokyo (KLS) will be hosting a seminar entitled "Keio University Law School Book Series Seminar: Hart's Studies in Private International Law – Asia" at Room 2B12 in South Building, Keio University Mita Campus, on Friday, 25 September 2026, from 3 to 4pm.

As the readers of ConflictofLaws.net are well aware, Studies in Private International Law – Asia is a forum for discussion and analysis of private international law issues in Asian jurisdictions, which is published under Hart's celebrated series Studies in Private International Law. This seminar aims to provide an overview of the book series to the audience. Legal practitioners, government officials, academics and students who are interested in Asian law, private international law (broadly defined) and/or law and development are welcome to join.

The seminar will be followed by a networking tea, during which interested participants may explore future publication opportunities in the Studies in Private International Law – Asia series and other Hart Publishing outlets with Justice Anselmo Reyes (General Editor of Studies in Private International Law – Asia and International Judge at Singapore International Commercial Court) and Dr Roberta Bassi (Publisher at Hart Publishing).

There is no registration fee for this event, but registration is required for catering purposes. Visit here to register.

Programme

3.00pm	Opening remarks by Professor Hiroshi MATSUO (Vice Dean and Director of Global LLM Program at Keio University Law School)
3.10pm	Book series introduction by Justice Anselmo Reyes and Dr Roberta Bassi
3.30pm	Experience sharing by Dr Nobumichi TERAMURA (Associate Professor at Keio University Law School)
3.40pm	Q&A
4pm	End of the seminar and networking tea

SPIL-A series seminar Keio