

PAX Moot 2026 Vladimir Koutikov Round has come to an end - announcement of winners

This post has previously been published by PAX Moot (with minor changes). Photo: University of Ljubljana Team.

The PAX Moot 2026 — Vladimir Koutikov Round has come to an end, and what an incredible edition it has been. We hope it was an unforgettable experience for all participants — a unique opportunity to engage in high-level argumentation on Private International Law, grow advocacy skills, and forge lasting friendships along the way.

Without further ado, we are proud to announce the results of this year's competition:

- Winner — University of Ljubljana
- Runner-up — Sofia University St. Kliment Ohridski

Best Written Submission (shared 1st place) University of Warsaw & University of Ljubljana

Honourable Mention for Written Submission: Singapore Management University | Universidad Autónoma de Madrid | University of Antwerp

Best Oralist Awards:

- 1st place — Chloe Xin Ying Chia (Singapore Management University)
- 2nd place — Lara Vangoethem (Maastricht University)

- 3rd place — Benedetta Gargiulo (Maastricht University)

We extend our deepest gratitude to our hosts from Sofia University St. Kliment Ohridski, and to the European Commission for their generous funding, which makes this incredible event possible.

To every team, coach, judge, and volunteer who contributed to making PAX Moot 2026 a success: thank you.

Funded by the European Union

Photo credit: Mayela Celis