Trier, September 07th, 2009

At the Department of Law, two vacancies have to be filled at the chair for German, Comparative and Private International Law (Prof. Dr. Jan von Hein), from October 1st, 2009 or later with a legal research assistant (salary scale E 13 TV-L, personnel quota 50%) limited for 2 years.

The assistants are supposed to support the organizational and educational work of the chairholder, to participate in research projects of the chair as well as to teach their own courses (students' exercise). Applicants are offered the opportunity to obtain a doctorate.

The applicants are expected to be interested in the chair's main areas of research. They should possess an above-average German First State Examination (vollbefriedigend) or equivalent. In addition, a thorough knowledge of German civil law as well as either

- conflict of laws and international procedural law or
- company law

is a necessity. Severely handicapped persons will be preferred provided that their qualification is equal.

Please send your application (Curriculum Vitae, certificates and, if available, further proofs of talent) to Prof. Dr. Jan von Hein, Universität Trier, FB V – Rechtswissenschaft, 54286 Trier, no later than September 25th, 2009.

As the application documents will not be returned, we kindly request you to submit only unauthenticated copies. Alternatively, the documents may be sent via e-mail to willemsb@uni-trier.de.
