

2025 ICC Institute of World Business Law

Prize

Recognising legal writing excellence

€10,000 award

Deadline: 7 April 2025

2025 ICC Institute of World Business Law Prize

Have you written a doctoral dissertation or long essays on international commercial law, including arbitration?

The ICC Institute of World Business Law Prize enriches understanding and development of international commercial law worldwide and celebrates the contribution of those conducting focused research on legal issues affecting international business. Shining a light on these contributions advances ICC's mission to make business work for everyone, every day, everywhere by recognising legal writing excellence in the field of international commercial law, including arbitration.

Who can enter?

The ICC Institute Prize is open to candidates under the age of 40 for doctoral dissertations and long essays on international commercial law (including arbitration). Work must be submitted in French or in English and be a minimum of 150 pages.

Sabrina Pearson-Wenger

has been awarded the 2023 ICC Institute Prize for her thesis on "Good Faith in International Commercial Arbitration: its Application by Arbitral Tribunals to the Parties' Contract and the Arbitration Agreement". The prize, including €10,000 prize money in recognition of her outstanding work, was handed to Ms Pearson-Wenger during a special award ceremony to conclude the 43rd ICC Institute of World Business Law Annual Conference

This recognition underscores the excellence of her work and her significant contribution to the field of international arbitration law.

When is the deadline for entries?

7 April 2025

For further information on the entry conditions visit: iccwbo.org/institute-prize

About the ICC Institute of World Business Law

The ICC Institute of World Business Law is an ICC think-tank comprising more than 270 members from around the world. Our work is led by a maximum of 50 Council members who are all experienced professionals or academics in international business law or international commercial arbitration.

Created over 40 years ago, the pioneering ICC Institute of World Business Law provides research, training and information to the legal profession to enable the development of international business law. In line with its culture of excellence, the ICC Institute of World Business Law offers publications, trainings and conferences on a range of topics related to international business law.